Dear staff at Roverdog8 productions;

I just got back with Hudson from visiting our Vet this morning. In the middle of the examination he stopped to apologize for changing the subject and then asked where did I get Hudson's fabulous collar? Hudson and Abby our black flat-coated retrievers are wearing their Long Island Sound Collars for the summer. Hudson is wearing the 1.5" wide martingale and Abby the 1" wide martingale. I must say there isn't a day that goes by that someone doesn't stop and comment on the appearance of our dogs and their collars. Hudson especially looks handsome in the 1.5" wide collar as he is a large dog. I like to purchase matching or co-coordinating collars for my pups so by offering the ribbon patterns in different widths allows me to purchase the 1" wide collar for Abby who is smaller than Hudson.

I was thrilled when I first purchased your roverdog8 collars a few years ago. Of course I couldn't make up my mind which collars to purchase so I purchased 2 sets-the barkbury and the pink and black polka dot patterns. The barkbury were the martingale type and the polka dots were the standard buckle. I still have these collars but I must confess it wasn't enough to have 2 sets of collars so I decided that I should have collars for every month. Next I purchased the velvets, the hearts and the flowers. I always look at your website for your new designs. I guess you could call me a collarholic since I first saw and purchased your collars.

I am impressed with how well made the collars are. The stitching is precise, the ribbon fabric does not fray and is always reinforced with a backing of a co-coordinating fabric, the hardware is strong and the added embellishment of the ceramic glass bone is fun. (PS. Thank you Chris for sharing the name of the bead artist. I have had a custom charm bracelet made for myself with bead portraits of my pups, bones, hearts and paw prints.)

Lastly I would like to thank all those at rover dog 8 for their dedication to producing a great product for my very special pups. They deserve the best and your collars are second to none. Keep up the great work and we wish you great success.

Sincerely, Marilyn Angus
